MASTERCLASSES

Collegiate Masterclass with Eva Amsler

The Collegiate Masterclass Competition is open to any flutist who is a current full-time student enrolled at an accredited college or university during the 2019-2020 academic year. The Collegiate Masterclass will be led by Guest Artist Eva Amsler.

- Recorded Round Repertoire (due 1/15/19): An unedited recording of applicant's choice.
- Selected winners will perform a piece of their choice in a masterclass at the 2020 FSK Festival. This selection may be different from the recorded round selection, if desired.

High School Masterclass

The High School Masterclass Competition is open to any flutist who is a current full-time high school student during the 2019-2020 academic year.

- Recorded Round Repertoire (due 1/15/19): An unedited recording of applicant's choice.
- Selected winners will perform a piece of their choice in a masterclass at the 2020 FSK Festival. This selection may be different from the recorded round selection, if desired.

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

We are looking for diverse programming that reflects the varied interest of our members and the flute community, including but not limited to presentations on pedagogy, history, famous figures in the flute world, and musicians' health and wellness. We are looking for performers of all backgrounds to play either solo or chamber works from any time period on a series of concerts throughout the Festival.

To Apply:

All proposals must be submitted electronically at FSKentucky.net. Performers chosen to play at the Festival will perform the same selection submitted in the original proposal. All participants agree to appear at the 2020 Kentucky Flute Festival at their own expense. Travel information may be found on the FSK website at www.FSKentucky.net. DEADLINE: December 20, 2019.

Those who have been accepted to perform or present must register for the Festival no later than February 1, 2020.
